

The Oslo Principles – Commentary

List of contents

Introduction (p 1)

The group and its working method (p 8)

The core principles should be as clear as is reasonably possible (p 10)

Per capita-approach (p 11)

Legal basis for far reaching reduction requirements (p 14)

An amalgamation of legal sources (p 14)

International law and human rights (p 14)

The human rights dimension (p 16)

Tort law (p 31)

Commentary to the respective principles - Precautionary principle (p 42)

General observations (p 42)

Comments on the first paragraph (p 51)

Comments on paragraph a (p 53)

Comments on paragraph b (p 54)

Definitions (p 55)

Introduction: why do we need to distinguish among countries? (p 55)

How to calculate GHG-emissions? (p 56)

(Un)certainly about the number of the population (p 59)

Principle 2 (p 59)

Principle 3 (p 60)

Principle 4 (p 63)

Principle 5 (p 63)

Obligations of states and enterprises (p 63)

Principle 6 (p 63)

Principle 7 (p 64)

Principle 8 (p 66)

Principle 9 (p 67)

Principle 10 (p 68)

Principle 11 (p 68)

Principle 12 (p 71)

Obligations of states (p 72)

Principle 13 (p 72)

Principle 14 (p 72)

Principle 15 (p 74)

Principle 16 (p 74)

Principle 17 (p 75)

Principle 18 (p 75)

Principle 19 (p 77)

As to 19 supra a. (p 78)

As to 19 supra b. (p 78)

Principle 20 (p 79)

Principle 21 (p 80)

Principle 22 (p 81)

Principle 23 (p 81)

Principle 24 (p 82)

Procedural issues

Principle 25 (p 83)

As to b. (p 84)

Principle 26 (p 84)

Obligations of enterprises

Introduction: diverging views

I. (p 86)

II. (p 87)

Commentary to Principles 27 – 30 (p 92)

Principle 27-30 (p 92)

Principle 28 (p 92)

Principle 30 (p 92)

Epilogue (p 94)